Documents purported to be part of a failed presidential candidate's secret political program have been leaked online. General outrage has followed in the wake of the hack, relating to certain points of the as yet unverified text. In all probability, they were released by a disgruntled ex-employee, or obtained illegally by hackers utilizing K-worms hidden in child pornography. This material gives a glimpse of the first 100 days of the presidency:

- Legalization of adult-child marriage.
- Introduction of a Global Gay Rights Initiative (membership compulsory).
- Ratification of the Intergalactic Free Trade Agreement (IFTA).
- Lizard-people revelation, following ratification of IFTA.
- War with the Russian Federation and other renegade regions of Slave Planet Earth, so as to introduce an alternative agricultural paradigm using human remains as fertilizer.
- Legalizing the use of intergalactic lifeforms in agriculture and breeding.
- Signing of the Pornography Freedom Act, in the presence of representatives of the DragonDildo Company Inc.
- Virus Eradication Initiative; the introduction of GMO mosquitoes and spiders into the drinking water of all-too-human populations, so as to eradicate anthropomorphic viruses.
- Creation of the Compulsory HIV-Infection Committee underneath the ruins of what was formerly known as the European Parliament.
- The restriction of online hate speech through the recoding of Swedish jihadist content into hiphop music.
- Filtering of news items relating to a lizard-people takeover from online media — such fake news must be replaced by sensitizing stories relating to homosexual Muslim men who prefer the passive position and pose no military threat.
- Praise be to the Great Rainbow!
